

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

BELANGENYI NGINDU

This will confirm that Mr Belangenyi Ngindu was registered on a postgraduate programme of study leading to the degree of the Master of Arts in Translation and Interpreting from October 1983 to September 1985.

He successfully completed the course in November 1985.

He trained in the following areas:

Translation : English to French and French to English

Consecutive Interpreting : English to French and French to English

Simultaneous Interpreting : English to French and French to English

Ad hoc/Liaison Interpreting : English to French and French to English

Additional Courses:

Third Language : Spanish

The purpose of the course is to give a passive reading knowledge of the language.

Background courses :

Introductory Linguistics
Theory and Practice of Translation

MA Dissertation Title :

Linguistic Similarity Versus Cultural Disparity in Advertising
English and French

Training Placement :

Mr Belangenyi Ngindu carried out a training placement in interpretation from 12 to 19 January 1985 at the World Health Organisation, Geneva.

for
S R BOSWORTH
Registrar