

Statement of participation

Oladimeji Obanubi

has completed the free course including any mandatory tests for:

Evaluating school classroom discussion

This 9-hour free course explored how to evaluate classroom discussions in order to develop students' understanding and use of spoken language.

Issue date: 11 July 2019

www.open.edu/openlearn

This statement does not imply the award of credit points nor the conferment of a University Qualification. This statement confirms that this free course and all mandatory tests were passed by the learner.

Please go to the course on OpenLearn for full details:

<https://www.open.edu/openlearn/education/educational-technology-and-practice/educational-practice/evaluating-school-classroom-discussion/content-section-0>

COURSE CODE: E844_1

Evaluating school classroom discussion

<https://www.open.edu/openlearn/education/educational-technology-and-practice/educational-practice/evaluating-school-classroom-discussion/content-section-0>

Course summary

It is important to learn from classroom discussions, both for pupils and teachers. This free course, Evaluating school classroom discussion, will help you, as a teacher, to evaluate such discussions in order to help students develop their understanding and use of spoken language. The ability to use language as a tool for constructing and sharing knowledge is applicable across the whole curriculum.

Learning outcomes

By completing this course, the learner should be able to:

- understand ways that spoken language is used to create joint knowledge and understanding, and to pursue teaching and learning
- consider the educational implications of some recent research on teaching and learning in face-to-face interactions
- demonstrate some approaches to analysing the spoken language of teaching and learning.

Completed study

The learner has completed the following:

Section 1

Language as a tool for social action

Section 2

Evaluating classroom discussion

Section 3

Conclusion